HOUSING AND EDUCATION ALLIANCE (HEA) values your trust and we are committed to the delivery of high quality services and to the responsible management, use and protection of personal information. This notice describes our policy regarding the collection and disclosure of personal information and our policies regarding conflict of interest. As a non-profit community development organization founded in 2002 with the mission of providing culturally sensitive (English and Spanish services) housing education, post purchase education, foreclosure prevention counseling, credit rebuilding, financial literacy education, back to work mortgage counseling, and other housing related programs offered by HEA in the future.

AUTHORIZATION, DISCLOSURES, POLICIES AND PRACTICES

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

HEA certifies that the staff and volunteers who will provide education or counseling services have no conflicts of interest due to relationships with servicers, real estate agencies, mortgage lenders and/or other entities who may stand to benefit from particular counseling outcomes.
Initial
HOUSING COUNSELING AGREEMENT By participating in our homebuyer education, post purchase education, foreclosure prevention counseling, credit rebuilding, financial literacy or back to work mortgage counseling program, you are agreeing to receive counseling, education, information and application assistance, including computations, assessments and procurement of services, in connection with your pursuit of (a) a home purchase, (b) qualifying for a mortgage loan or other homebuyer assistance program (c) obtaining better loan terms with your current mortgage loan or (d) preventing a home foreclosure. While you are welcomed and encouraged to do so, you are in no way obligated to participate in any of our home partner services, grant programs, or other services. HEA is also not obligated to enroll you in any other program as a result of your participation in any homeownership education program. Each HEA program is administered separately and you should seek application information pertaining to your program of interest. I give permission for FCP program administrators and/or their agents to follow-up with me for the next 3 years for the purposes of program evaluation.

REAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENTS PROJECTS AND OTHER GRANT PROGRAMS HEA may own and develop real estate property for the purpose of renting or selling to low-income families in relation to its mission of community development. Participating in HEA's Homeownership Education or counseling programs does not obligate you to purchase or rent any property owned by HEA and, HEA is in no way obligated to sell or rent you any of our development properties, provide you with any monetary assistance, or provide you with any additional services. Each service and program outside of Homeownership Education and Counseling is offered independently and has its own application, procurement process and participation guidelines.
Initial
PROGRAM FEE A fee is assessed for enrollment in the homebuyer education seminar: $50 per attendee. A fee for Housing Counseling is assessed at $50 per hour. Back to Work Counseling is $125.00 and Section 32/ High Cost Mortgage Counseling is $150. Other fees may be charged for services provided by HEA.
Initial
CREDIT REPORT FEE A Credit Report fee is assessed if your credit report is ordered by HEA. This fee will be the sole responsibility of the client. This fee may be waived if you meet very low income criteria and is not applicable for "foreclosure prevention" counseling services. FCP requires two credit reports, one at the beginning of counseling and one at the end. Initial
FUNDING SOURCES
HEA receives its funding from a number of sources including but not limited to Banks and their Charitable Foundations. Some of whom would be National Council of La Raza (NCLR), Citi, Wells Fargo, Regions Bank, TD Bank, 3rd Federal Savings and Loan, JPMorgan Chase, Bank of America, PNC Bank, BB&T, Florida Housing Finance Corporation. You are under no obligation to obtain a loan or any other product or service from any of the afore mentioned lending institutions and are in fact, encouraged by HEA to shop around for loan product options which best suit your needs.
PRIVACY POLICY AND AUTHORIZATION
