HOUSING AND EDUCATION ALLIANCE (HEA) values your trust and we are committed to the delivery of high quality services and to the responsible management, use and protection of personal information. This notice describes our policy regarding the collection and disclosure of personal information and our policies regarding conflict of interest. As a non-profit community development organization founded in 2002 with the mission of providing culturally sensitive (English and Spanish services) housing education, post purchase education, foreclosure prevention counseling, credit rebuilding, financial literacy education, back to work mortgage counseling, and other housing related programs offered by HEA in the future.

AUTHORIZATION, DISCLOSURES, POLICIES AND PRACTICES

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

HEA certifies that the staff and volunteers who will provide education or counseling services have no conflicts of interest due to relationships with servicers, real estate agencies, mortgage lenders and/or other entities who may stand to benefit from particular counseling outcomes.

Initial _____

HOUSING COUNSELING AGREEMENT

By participating in our homebuyer education, post purchase education, foreclosure prevention counseling, credit rebuilding, financial literacy or back to work mortgage counseling program, you are agreeing to receive counseling, education, information and application assistance, including computations, assessments and procurement of services, in connection with your pursuit of (a) a home purchase, (b) qualifying for a mortgage loan or other homebuyer assistance program (c) obtaining better loan terms with your current mortgage loan or (d) preventing a home foreclosure. While you are welcomed and encouraged to do so, you are in no way obligated to participate in any of our home partner services, grant programs, or other services. HEA is also not obligated to enroll you in any other program as a result of your participation in any homeownership education program. Each HEA program is administered separately and you should seek application information pertaining to your program of interest. I give permission for FCP program administrators and/or their agents to follow-up with me for the next 3 years for the purposes of program evaluation.

Initial _____

REAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENTS PROJECTS AND OTHER GRANT PROGRAMS

HEA may own and develop real estate property for the purpose of renting or selling to low-income families in relation to its mission of community development. Participating in HEA’s Homeownership Education or counseling programs does not obligate you to purchase or rent any property owned by HEA and, HEA is in no way obligated to sell or rent you any of our development properties, provide you with any monetary assistance, or provide you with any additional services. Each service and program outside of Homeownership Education and Counseling is offered independently and has its own application, procurement process and participation guidelines.

Initial _____

PROGRAM FEE

A fee is assessed for enrollment in the homebuyer education seminar: $30 per attendee. A fee for Housing Counseling is assessed at $50 per hour for an individual and $75.00 for married couple. Your first housing counseling session will also include your credit report, mortgage readiness assessment, action plan, budget review, etc. Other fees may be charged for services provided by HEA.

Initial _____

CREDIT REPORT FEE

A Credit Report fee is assessed if your credit report is ordered by HEA. This fee will be the sole responsibility of the client. This fee may be waived if you meet very low income criteria and is not applicable for “foreclosure prevention” counseling services. FCP requires two credit reports, one at the beginning of counseling and one at the end.

Initial _____

FUNDING SOURCES

HEA receives its funding from a number of sources including but not limited to Banks and their Charitable Foundations. Some of whom would be National Council of La Raza (NCLR), Citi, Wells Fargo, Regions Bank, TD Bank, 3rd Federal Savings and Loan, JPMorgan Chase, Bank of America, PNC Bank, BB&T, Florida Housing Finance Corporation. You are under no obligation to obtain a loan or any other product or service from any of the afore mentioned lending institutions and are in fact, encouraged by HEA to shop around for loan product options which best suit your needs.

Initial _____

PRIVACY POLICY AND AUTHORIZATION

Personal information, as used in this notice, means information that identifies an individual personally and is not otherwise publicly available information. It includes personal financial information such as credit history, income, employment history, financial assets, bank account information and financial debts. It also includes your social security number and other information that you have provided us on any applications or forms that you have completed.

Initial _____

CONFIDENTIALITY AND SECURITY

We restrict access to personal information about you to those of our employees who need to know that information to provide products and services to you and to help them do their jobs, including making loan decisions, aiding you in obtaining loans from others, and financial counseling. We maintain physical and electronic security procedures to safeguard the confidentiality and integrity of personal information in our possession and to guard against unauthorized access. We use locked files, user authentication and detection software to protect your information. Our safeguards comply with federal regulations to guard your personal information.

Initial _____

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect personal information to

- Support our financial fitness counseling,

- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency,
- Information we receive from independent third parties authorized by you to provide us with your information.

Initial _____

Information We Disclose

We may disclose the following kinds of personal information about you:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, employer, occupation, assets, debts, and income;
- Information we receive from consumer reporting agency, such as your credit bureau reports, your credit history, and your creditworthiness.

Initial _____

To Whom Do We Disclose

We may disclose your personal information to the following types of unaffiliated third parties:

- Financial service providers, such as companies engaged in providing home mortgage or home equity loans,
- Others, such as nonprofit and/or governmental organizations involved in community development, but only for program review auditing, research and oversight purposes.
- We may also disclose personal information about you to third parties as permitted by law.

Initial _____

Monitoring for possible fraud

Monitoring for possible fraud requires the identification of processes, controls and other procedures to mitigate risk, including an effective secure information system and appropriate monitoring and quality assurance activities. FCP has a fraud/waste reporting system for client to use if they suspect inappropriate activities occurring. The system can be accessed at:

<https://apps.floridahousing.org/StandAlone/OIGFWAForm/>.

Prior to sharing personal information with unaffiliated third parties, except as described in this policy, we will give you an opportunity to direct that such information not be disclosed.

Directing Us Not to Make Disclosures to Unaffiliated Third Parties

If you want to opt out, direct us not to make disclosures about your personal information (other than disclosures permitted by law) as described in this notice.

Please indicate in the box below your privacy choice:

INSTRUCTIONS

Certificate of Completion of Housing Counseling
(Fannie Mae Form 1017)*Part A: To be completed by the individual who received the housing counseling and education—the counseling recipient

Type or print your name in the appropriate box, then sign and date the form where indicated.

Forward the signed form to your housing counselor. Once the form is completed by your housing counselor, send it to your lender to be placed in your mortgage file.

Part B: To be completed by the housing counselor

In signing this form, you certify that you provided counseling before your client signed a purchase contract on a home. You also certify that the counseling and education provided by your agency meets HUD's definitions found in Chapter 1, Section 1-4 F and Section 1-4 G of the HUD Housing Counseling Program Handbook (7610.1 dated 05/2010):

1-4 F. Counseling. Counseling is described as counselor-to-client assistance that addresses unique financial circumstances and housing issues, and focuses on overcoming specific obstacles to achieving a housing goal such as repairing credit, addressing a rental dispute, purchasing a home, locating cash for a down payment, raising awareness about critical housing topics such as predatory lending practices, fair lending and fair housing requirements, finding units accessible to persons with disabilities, avoiding foreclosure, or resolving a financial crisis. Except for reverse mortgage counseling, all counseling will involve the creation of an action plan.

1-4. G. Education. For the purposes of HUD's Housing Counseling Program, education is defined as formal classes, with established curriculum and instructional goals, provided in a group or classroom setting, or other formats approved by HUD, covering topics such as, but not limited to: (1) renter rights; (2) the home buying process; (3) how to maintain a home; (4) budgeting; (5) fair housing; (6) identifying and reporting predatory lending practices; (7) rights for persons with disabilities; (8) and the importance of good credit. Special Note: The educational topic of "Fair Housing" may include the promotion and protection of civil rights as they relate to ensuring equal opportunity housing. Such educational sessions may include topics such as identifying and reporting discriminatory policies, procedures practices, fair lending, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, and predatory lending.

Type or print your name where indicated, sign and date the form, and enter the information requested to identify the HUD-approved agency.

Note: The Agency ID requested is the Agency ID required under Box 1 on the HUD-9902 (Housing Counseling Agency Activity Report).

Return the completed, signed form to the counseling client who will then forward it to the lender.
